Importance: High

Tom, I could not resist and just read though it. I found your note extremely helpful and very insightful, a great contribution indeed. I plan to incorporate most of the ideas in the final report I am preparing and -- if you agree -- share your note with selected people in Croatia.

Just wanted to consult with you the possibility of adding a few paragraphs on the U.S. experience with the regulation of institutional investors and the importance to the development of VC industry (a parag or two telling factually the story would do)-- expanding the reference you made to it on page 13.

No a more general note, do you think HBOR could try to replicate the SBIC scheme? Or perhaps you some sort of guarantee to facilitate alternative early stage financing (such as royalty financing; financing by future customers etc)?

Warm regards-
